Such decisions shall be made in the best interest of the students and to further academic and research pursuits, upholding the principles of academic excellence and institutional integrity.

3. Lateral Entry

3.1. Upon receipt of an application for admission through lateral entry to a University Department, Affiliated College, Constituent College, Conducted College, Research Institute, Recognised Institute, or Learner Support Centre, the same may be considered, provided the applicant fulfills the eligibility criteria prescribed by the university and/or the related governing apex bodies and/or the Government of Gujarat from time to time.

3.2. This shall include applications from the same programme at another university or from related, allied, or different programmes within this or any other university.

3.3. The Dean of the respective faculty or a person designated by the university shall scrutinize such applications for credit equivalence, course equivalence, or any other academic equivalence.

3.4. The Dean may mandate an entrance test and/or prescribe bridge courses, credit courses, or MOOC(s) for admission to the programme through lateral entry.

3.5. The applicant shall have to comply with the conditions prescribed by the Dean within the time frame determined by the university.

4. Admission of Detained Students

4.1. A student who has been detained for any reason and subsequently fulfills all the prescribed requirements shall be eligible for readmission to the same department/college and in the same semester/year, irrespective of the total strength of that particular semester/year in the concerned department/college.

5. Readmission

5.1. Readmission to Previously Completed Programs: Readmission to the same programme, i.e., the exact programme (with or without changes in major/minor subjects), that a student has already completed shall generally be permitted unless explicitly prohibited by the applicable professional council or apex body governing the specific programme.

5.2. Re-admission with Different Major/Minor/Specialization: Re-admission to the same programme shall be permissible for students who wish to pursue a different major, minor, or specialization after completing the programme, or at any stage of study prior to completion, such as after completing a few semesters or even a single semester.

5.2.1. Re-admission from the First Semester: Students opting to restart the programme from the first semester shall not require any formal approval to pursue the same programme again.

5.2.2. Re-admission at a Later Semester/Year: Students wishing to rejoin the programme at a later semester/year shall be required to obtain approval.

The Dean of the relevant faculty or a person designated by the university shall, on a case-to-case basis, evaluate the credits earned, the core competencies acquired in terms of knowledge and skill set, and any gaps in credits or competencies. The Dean or a person designated by the university may stipulate conditions for such readmission, including:

- Exemptions from specific courses already completed.
- Completion of additional courses or bridging requirements to address competency gaps.

- Any conditions prescribed by the Dean shall be binding on the student concerned.

6. Continuation of Incomplete Studies

6.1. Students of HNGU who leave study without completing the whole program for any reason but later wish to continue their study will be allowed to continue in the appropriate semester/year in same department/college irrespective of vacant seat within the stipulated time span allowed by the UGC or the respective apex body.

6.2. However, a student who wishes to continue his/her study other than his/her parent institution the admission shall be subject to the vacant seat available in the respective semester / year of the program concerned.

6.3. This provision is subject to any maximum duration prescribed to complete the whole programme by rules or regulations for completing a programme, if the maximum duration prescribed to complete a particular programme is over the student shall not be allowed to continue and shall have to start all over again from the very first semester/year.

6.4. Even in case of permissible continuation of studies under this provision, any condition to earn extra credits or pass additional courses prescribed by the university in consultation with the Dean of the faculty concerned to fulfill the academic accomplishments shall be binding to the students.

7. Inter-College Transfer

7.1. The process of inter-college transfer shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the university from time to time.

7.2. For undergraduate and postgraduate programmes governed by the rules and regulations of relevant professional councils, commissions, statutory bodies, or centralized admission committees of the government—such as the National Medical Commission (NMC), All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), Central Council of Homeopathy (CCH), Bar Council of India (BCI), Indian Nursing Council (INC), National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE), and other such regulatory bodies—the inter-college transfer process shall adhere to the rules and regulations stipulated by these respective authorities.

7.3 Notwithstanding the provisions outlined above, the Vice-Chancellor shall have the authority to determine the manner and procedure for the inter-college transfer process, including the power to fix or extend the dates for accepting transfer applications and scheduling the transfer process, as deemed necessary.

8. Inter-University Transfer

8.1. The process of inter-university transfer shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the university from time to time.

8.2. For undergraduate and postgraduate programmes governed by the rules and regulations of relevant professional councils, commissions, statutory bodies, or centralized admission committees of the government—such as the National Medical Commission (NMC), All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), Central Council of Homeopathy (CCH), Bar Council of India (BCI), Indian Nursing Council (INC), National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE), and other such regulatory bodies—the inter-university transfer process shall adhere to the rules and regulations stipulated by these authorities.

8.3. In the case of undergraduate and postgraduate programmes where inter-university transfer is facilitated through the Academic Bank of Credit, the rules and regulations governing the Academic Bank of Credit regarding credit transfer and student mobility shall apply.

8.4. Inter-university transfers shall be subject to approval as specified under 6.

8.5. Notwithstanding the provisions outlined above, the Vice Chancellor shall have the authority to determine the manner and procedure for the inter-university transfer process, including the power to fix or extend the dates for accepting transfer applications and scheduling the transfer process, as deemed necessary.

9. Pursuing Two Academic Programmes Simultaneously

9.1. A student can pursue two full-time academic programmes in the physical mode provided that in such cases, class timings for one programme do not overlap with the class timings of the other programme.

9.2. A student can pursue two academic programmes, one in full-time physical mode and another in Open and Distance Learning (ODL)/Online mode; or up to two ODL/Online programmes simultaneously.

9.3. Degree or diploma programmes under ODL/Online mode shall be pursued with only such HEIs which are recognized by UGC/Statutory Council/Govt. of India for running such programmes.

9.4. Clause 9.1 to 9.3 above shall apply only to students enrolled in academic programmes other than the Ph.D. program.

9.5. Students enrolled in simultaneous academic programs bear the exclusive responsibility for adhering to all specified conditions, rules, and regulations governing such programs, as determined by this University.

9.6. Furthermore, the University shall not entertain applications or requests pertaining to clashes or overlaps in examination schedules or other academic commitments arising from simultaneous enrollment.

10. Admission of Students from Other Universities (Universities other than HNGU) and Boards (Boards other than GHSEB)

10.1. The Head of the University Department or the Principal/Director of an Affiliated College, Constituent College, Conducted College, Research Institute, Recognised Institute, or Learner Support Centre shall admit students who have passed the qualifying examination from institutions other than Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University or a statutory examining body conducting a Higher Secondary or equivalent examination other than the Gujarat Secondary and Higher Secondary Education Board, subject to the fulfilment of the eligibility criteria.

10.2. Provisional Admissions shall be granted as per the manner and procedures prescribed by the university and/or the related governing apex bodies and/or the Government of Gujarat from time to time, subject to the fulfillment of all prescribed conditions.

10.3. A student provisionally admitted in any college affiliated to this University or in any University Department shall have to apply for a Provisional Eligibility Certificate with non refundable prescribed fees (as determined by university from time to time) before submitting application for Enrolment/Registration as the case may be.

10.4. Candidates holding a Diploma or ITI (NCVT/GCVT Certificate) for which the Gujarat Secondary and Higher Secondary Education Board has issued a certificate of equivalence certifying equivalence with a higher secondary certificate shall not have to obtain a Provisional Eligibility certificate.

10.5. Candidates holding a Diploma or ITI (NCVT/GCVT Certificate) for which other than the Gujarat Secondary and Higher Secondary Education Board has issued a certificate of equivalence certifying equivalence with a higher secondary certificate shall have to obtain Provisional Eligibility Certificate.

10.6. A candidate pursuing two academic programs simultaneously shall be required to apply for and obtain separate Provisional Eligibility Certificates for each program.

10.7. A candidate shall be provisionally enrolled/registered only upon the successful issuance of a Provisional Eligibility Certificate.

10.8. The university shall get the mark sheet of the qualifying examination verified from the issuing authority.

10.9. On receipt of a positive verification report from the issuing authority, a Final Eligibility Certificate shall be issued and provisional enrolment/registration shall be confirmed.

10.10. In case of any discrepancy found at any stage of the study or even after completion of the study and conferment of the degree, the decision of the university including cancellation of admission without refund of any fees, cancellation of enrolment without refund of fees, and even withdrawal of results (if declared) and withdrawal of degree (if awarded) shall be final and binding to the student.
